World History: Patterns of Interaction
Module 22: An Age of Democracy and Progress
Lesson 2: "Self-Rule For British Colonies"

1. Start with the main topic of your diagram.

a. "The Rise of Christianity"

Instructions

Either using a pencil and poster paper or an online diagramming program like Coggle, create an interactive set of notes for this reading. Students will be divided into groups of 5.

Each Member of the group will be responsible for one part of Lesson 4. Insert these questions, along with answers where it is appropriate in your Coggle. Some of these questions require thought and are not just obvious in the reading.

- 1. Canada Struggles For Self-Rule (Person 1)
  - a. What remnant of the division between upper and lower still exists?
  - b. How was Canada's relationship to Great Britain different from the U.S. relationship?
- 2. Australia and New Zealand (Person 2)
  - a. How were the political reforms pioneered in Australia and New Zealand related to Democratic reform in Great Britain?
  - b. How were the fates of Aborigines and Maori similar to that of indigenous peoples in the United States?
- 3. The Irish Win Home Rule (Person 3)
  - a. How did English laws for Ireland focus on religious differences in the 1500's and 1600's?
  - b. Why might Britain have been more reluctant to grant home rule to Ireland than to its other colonies?

When your group is finished, each person will present their part of the Coggle and questions that you came up with, will be discussed within your group. Each Group will share out their Coggle to the other groups.

2. Use the following colors to distinguish different parts of your diagram.

Notes

Instruction: As you read through the information, write notes –diagraming them as you see the relationship to the main topic.

Questions

Instruction: Answer the critical thinking questions above. As you read through the information, write questions that may develop in your mind that can be used during discussion.

Concepts

Instruction: As you read through the information, try to identify Social Studies Concepts that you feel are related to the information. Each main topic should have a Concept linked to it.

Link To Social Studies Concepts: <https://www.historysimulation.com/concept-based-learning.html>

Links To Outside information

Instruction: As you develop your diagram, when you come to information or topics you feel need more information or are just curious about- search out a link to add to your diagram. Chances are your readers will also be curious as well. Each Main topic should have a couple outside links within it.

Grading

0-4 Rating

When we finish the Coggle, each group will share their Coggle with another group to be evaluated. Groups will also evaluate their own work as well.

Organization: Notes are organized in a way that allows the viewer to understand relationships to other notes, chronological order or denotes the visual organization of Topics and Subtopics. Information is not in random order.

Concepts: Concepts are located with the Notes they correspond to. Remember: Concepts are broad topics that are adaptable to many topics and not specific.

Questions: are located in relation to the information they correspond with.

Links: Coggle includes links to sites that explain further the topic or subtopics.
